WEDDING & FUNERAL

CAREFORCE

August 10, 2019 | 0800 – 1700

CARROLL NONPROFIT CENTER | 255 Clifton Blvd., Westminster, Maryland 21157

Course Purpose

As chaplains, we have many opportunities to officiate both wedding ceremonies and funeral services. This class will help to educate, inform and train chaplains in how to conduct both a wedding and funeral. This class will also help the chaplain to understand the importance of pre, peri, and post responsibility of the chaplain when dealing with both weddings and funerals.

Topics Covered

WEDDING

- History and customs of marriage
- Basic knowledge of Marriage Laws
- The importance of pre-marriage counseling
- The wedding ceremony
- Suggested Scripture reading
- Affirmation of vows
- Symbolic acts
- Follow-up counseling

FUNERAL

- Meeting with the family
- Helping the family deal with their grief
- Preparing the eulogy and message
- Christian vs. Non-Christian
- The funeral / memorial service
- Suggested Scripture reading
- The graveside ceremony
- Follow-up

Course Facilitator

Sr. Chaplain Ken Schlenker, Founder CAREForce

Course Registration

https://www.careforce.us/p/course-announcement-wedding-and-funeral-august-10-2019

Course Costs

$100

Pre-Requisite

This class is ONLY available for those who have completed Practical Chaplaincy Course.

AFFILIATED PARTNERS

Armed Forces Mission

Grace School of Theology

International Critical Incident Stress Foundation

International Conference of Police Chaplains

Living Shield Ministries

LivingWorks

The Counseling Team International

The Stronger Alliance

The Joyful Child Foundation

CONTINUING EDUCATION

National Center for Chaplain Development approves this course for 27 hours of instructor-based EMS Continuing Education for Paramedics and EMT's, CE Provider #30-0120.

This course is also endorsed by the California State Firefighters Association Additionally, this course has been approved for submission of 4.5 CEU's with the International Conference of Police Chaplains.

Download the full training catalog today!

careforce.us